

HOW IT WORKS

Place a pair of burritos on a table and draw cards.

Keep your cards a secret.

Rack up points by finding sets of three in the deck.

Find matches before anyone else does.

If someone plays Burrito Cards, a Battle ensues.

Steal points from your opponents by hitting them with squishy toy burritos.

Declare war on your friends.

Some battles only involve a handful of players. Others force the entire table to engage in a Burrito War.

Duel to determine the winner.

During a Burrito Duel, two players must stand back to back, walk three paces, and FIRE.
